

Frozen Whole Octopus

Octopus is becoming one of the fastest growing seafood trends in the industry. It's mildly sweet taste and soft yet chewy texture makes it the perfect ingredient for those seeking an exotic experience in a moderate way. Since our Octopus is flash frozen at the peak of freshness and always 100% chemical free its quality is unmatched. Bring this exciting new item to your establishment and we promise it will be a great addition to your existing menu.

Features and Benefits:

Oyster Bay offers Octopus that is wild caught off of the waters of the costal Indonesian islands. Using only “hand-line” catching methods our Octopus is closely inspected to guarentee exceptional quality and size every time. Thoroughly cleaned and frozen at the peak of freshness to maximize the natural texture and taste. Our Octopus are never soaked for added weight and are always 100% chemical free. Ball packed for convience, our Octopus is as close to the ocean as you can get.

Menu Ideas:

Our sweet and tender Octopus is the perfect exotic addition to any menu. With a variety of ways to prepare it, there is a guarenteed dish to fit every cuisine style. Some of our favorites include Puplo Gallego, smokey white wine maranated and grilled, and the classic stewed in red sauce. The options are endless with this cephalopod, from casual eats to up-scale dining, Oyster Bay Octopus will be the star of your menu.
